

OUR SPEAKER on Wednesday 25 May 2022 at 1:30pm will be

Lady Aurelia Young

who will talk to us about:

Oscar Nemon

Sculptor of Royalty and Statesmen

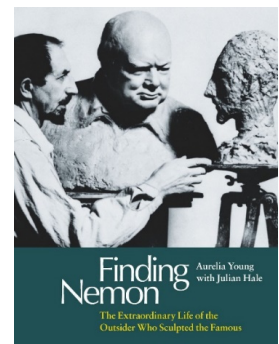

Lady Aurelia Young is the daughter of well-known sculptor Oscar Nemon. She is married to George Young, now Lord Young of Cookham, who was the MP for NW Hampshire from 1997 – 2015.

She has written a biography of her father 'Finding Nemon'.

Lady Aurelia has given talks about Oscar Nemon in Oxford, Cambridge, the Speaker's House, the House of Lords as well as in America, Belgium and France.

In her Illustrated talk she tells the story of how her father left his home in the Balkans to study sculpture in Vienna and made his way to the UK, where he became the sculptor of Royalty, Presidents and Prime Ministers.

The Queen commissioned Nemon to make a bust of Winston Churchill for Windsor Castle and whilst he was sitting for Nemon, Churchill made a bust of the sculptor, Churchill's only work of sculpture.

Nemon's most well-known statue of Churchill can be seen in the Members Lobby of the House of Commons. His bust of HM the Queen can be seen in the Robing Room in the House of Lords.
